International Student Payments

International Students should make payments from foreign bank accounts to their University Student Account via Flywire. For more information on how to use Flywire, please click on this link: www.flywire.com. There is currently a scam targeting international students. For more information, click here. Remember to never give your Illinois State University account sign on to anyone! If you have other questions about paying your account, please contact Student Accounts at 309/438-5643.

Checking your To Do List

Most financial aid has been posted to your account. If you seem to be missing an aid item, please review your financial aid on-line at my.illinoisstate.edu to see if you have any "to do" items in your student service center that need to be completed.

Spring 2017 Payment Plan

Payment Plan sign up for Spring 2017 will be available beginning the afternoon of December 13, 2016. The plan covers all charges related to Spring 2017. Charges for Spring 2017 tuition, general fees.

You will see any current Direct Deposit accounts listed below “Account Description.” To enter a new account, select “Set up Account.”

Enter in requested information and select "Continue."

NOTE: Please check and make sure ALL information is correct!!! It is quite a hassle to have refunds that have gone to an incorrect account reversed.
